Response to letter mailed 01/05/2004

Dear Sir/Madam:

Recently, I received your Confirmation No. 3676 notice / Receipt Acknowledgement in conjunction with a Formalities Letter / Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application. There appear to be errors in both documents and I am faxing copies of these documents along with this response.

First, in the Confirmation under "Assignment for Published Patent Application," there is a listing of XEROX CORPORATION. This assignment is in error. I have made no assignment. Therefore, there should be no listing under the assignment.

Second, with regard to Missing Parts, I spoke with someone in your office on 12/05/2003 and was informed that the $10 fee derives from an increase in the Small Entity Filing Fee that was only instituted on 10/01/2003. Please note that this increase took place three months after this Application was filed. Therefore, the additional fee of $10 listed in the Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application clearly is in error.

Moreover, I spoke with a representative Robinson in your office on 12/23/2003 and was informed at that time that the Missing Parts notice had been withdrawn. I was advised during this conversation that the Application was complete and that no further fees were required. Hence, it came as a great surprise to receive a notice from your department dated 01/05/2004 informing me that there remained a Missing Parts fee in effect.

Please correct the error in the assignment. Also, please look into the issue of the Missing Parts fee. The fee in question cannot be correct inasmuch as it is retroactive for an application filed three months before the new pricing took effect.

Thank you in advance for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dallas L. Clouatre, Ph.D.
